creation and fall originated in lectures given by dietrich bonhoeffer at the university of berlin in the winter semester of 1932 33 during the demise of the weimar republic and the birth of the third reich in the course of these events bonhoeffer called his students to focus their attention on the word of god the word of truth in a time of turmoil modern scientific discoveries often challenge biblical teachings and the long held beliefs of many christians to adam about adam is a serious yet lighthearted autobiography of the author who has known jesus since his childhood but drifted for many years while on his quest for science only while searching for answers to his sons question about creation did the author find his way back to the word of god through his journey the author was able to bring his passion for science and love for god together into a more holistic understanding of gods plan for mankind in a very personal way he uses an open bantering approach throughout the book to establish a friendly relationship with the reader this personal relationship is used to guide the reader through a number of biblical stories to show how god acted as both a loving and caring father and as a scientist in teaching mankind lessons related to overcoming sin to adam about adam may improve the readers understanding of gods plan for mankind and show how science is instrumental to that plan for example the author details how the fall of adam and eve was an important and preconceived part of gods plan not merely perfection gone awry science can explain the basis for the sin we see in the world today whereas the bible describes the only cure thus the bible and science are both integral to the fulfillment of gods plan for the first time the essential theological writings of dietrich bonhoeffer have been drawn together in a helpful one volume format the bonhoeffer reader brings the best english translation to students and provides a ready made introduction to the thought of this essential thinker
